My Dear Mrs Coonly

In picking up and looking over papers - preparations to taking the 7.45 P.M. train for Phila - I find the enclosed notes - in which there is lovely mention of your own dear self - I have written a word in reply to dear Miss Willard -

My brother-in-law & nephew went east this A.M. and my niece Anna O. Anthony went west - & I go south this evening - I shall stop with dear Rachel Foster Avery - Sommerton - Philadelphia House - till the 8th then with Mrs Stanton till the 15th at Glen Cove -(Long Island) N.Y. - then back to Rochester the 18th & with sister Mary - (leaving the house closed) return to Chicago - in time to read Mrs Stanton's paper in the educational Congress - as I promised Mrs Wilworth to do -

If you have any little informal musical - and it would be agreeable to you - I would love to have you invite my niece - she is stopping with a Fort Scott Houses - school mate - Miss Helen Lallee - 2330 Indiana Avenue- who would accompany Anna & thus save you any trouble in getting her to your house - Anna as you may remember - has taken lessons on the violin - here with Prof. Dozenhach - the past two years - I would love her to see & hear your darling Sarah play - Anna is very backward about playing and I know nothing of music so do not know whether it is because she knows she can't play well - or from sheer timidity.

Lovingly yours

Susan B. Anthony
