My Dear Friend (L. Coonley)

Yours of the 11th received & placed in the bank to await the thinking and the time most needed - precisely according to your order-

With many thanks too - for every added sum makes the realization of my hopes for a splendid Pres Bureau - with Harper at its head seem more possible - I might say sure -

We hope to get the entire copy - off to the publishers by the 1st of May - and after that will come the worry of proof reading - & seeing that everything is just right - It will be a real relief when the whole affair is beyond correction - for every time we go over the new copies - we find innumerable places when we would have felt awfully if it had gone to press that way -

With best love to your precious mother - & the children & childrens children - cart & all - & ever & ever so much for your own dear self- & the chosen one of your later life -

Susan B. Anthony
