My Dear ~~Sybil~~ A.C.W.

I am delighted that will be with us in Washington - I do hope all things will conspire to make it a good time -

What have the Chicago papers been telling about me - one Reporter came up this afternoon with a Telegram from your Times Herald to get 500 words of S.B.A. as to how she expected to her million dollars - another has just gone - who brought a telegram from the New York-World - to get a 1000 words how Miss A. on the "Chicago Story!" - I take Press Bureau Clippings - but it seems to me they send nothin of the things I ought to see, I am in a jumping hurry to get ready to be off for Washington the 27th or 28th - I wish your dear mother could be there - How she would enjoy it - What a treat you have been having with dear Mrs Platich - and I am to have her Nursery - her telegram came yesterday - but- it is of no use she will have to screw up her physical to stand the Nursery P.M. reception - They cannot change it now

We are to have Modjeska here on the 24th I wonder if you went to see her when she was in Chicago? Did you know my little - grand niece- Guelma M'Lean Baker was playing on the stage - a very minor part of course - as a page I think- with Modjeska F. So of course we are all on tip-toe not only to see the Madam - but- also one nice little niece -

Lovingly yours & your Mothers
& Mrs Platich - if she is with you yet-

Susan B. Anthony
