My Dear Mrs Coonly --

Here is another applicant to get before the good people of Chicago-

I wonder how you are since the Washington festivities? I have been kept busy trying to get to the end of the letters & telegrams with birthday greetings - I am within a hundred- I think - But - alas the house-cleaning time is upon us - the old rugs to be made over-& fitted to up-stairs bedrooms & etc. & the new ones to go down in the parlors --

What a nice thing you did for me when you had the big lot of your poem struck off & presented to me - This envelope shows you the little Souvenirs I have enclosed in every one of the envelopes I have sent out I have used $18.00 of stamps - & have a hundred envelopes now to get letters into- before I shall see the end -- and a thousand even very short letters is quite a 'big job'- But it will now soon be done --

Mrs Harper is to arrive the end of this weel - & we are to begin work on Vol.IV- of M. L. Lusting on the 23rd.- fom that on till July 1st we are to plod along on that work - So thanking you for your poems - & all your loving tokens - & most of all for your very own self- I am

Affectionately & gratefully yours

Susan B. Anthony

P.S. Love to your precious Mother & all the children--S.B.A.
