My dear Mrs. Coonly

It now looks as if we might more conveniently go to Wyoming for Monday evening - so just hold off fixing the day if you can until I can get my forces all agreed. One writes she must leave here Saturday nights train - so that necessitates the holding on here without a break off of Saturday:- the member that writes she must be through both business & go Saturday night is our President - Mrs. C. Chapman Catt.

Of course I know you want her - next to Miss Shaw - more than all the rest of us - but she writes she will not permit a break in the business sessions - until we are done and - that must be on Saturday night - so she can take the train that night - Don't this side of this sheet awful - but never mind - It looks now as if Miss Shaw could be in Wyoming Monday ev'g -

If Mrs. Catt cannot or will not go with us Saturday night - you can see that the rest of us must hold on here to the very last minute we can have her. I never dreamed of her bolting - but I write her same mail to try & make her see it is not going a junketing - but for more & better work -

But all I write is to beg you not to advertise on Saturday,- until I can get settled for sure - I thought I had all the girls at my command - now I find one isn't - I will write you positively - as to Monday - very soon

Lovingly yours

Susan B. Anthony
