My dear Friend (L.A. Coonley)

Your good note is here assuring Sister Mary that you included her in your all round invitation - all right - I am delighted to have her along always.

It now occurs to me that we can kill another bird with our one stone - that is that we can get together a majority of the Trustees of the Permanent Fund - while the Business Committee are here - - there are eight of us - then niece Lucy E. & Sister Mary make ten - but we must have one more to make the number - Now will you come up - for Friday evening! You see if Mrs. Catt will not go to Wyoming with us - we cannot get a quorum then. I have written Miss Emily Howland - Sherwood - Cayuga Co. N. Y. who is a Trustee - begging her to come here for Friday evening. If she comes - we can get along without your coming - though I would greatly prefer you to be here. I shall urge Mrs. Catt to stay and go to Wyoming - no fail! - Of course if I was sure all of our eight & Mary & Lucy could go to Wyoming - I wouldn't try to get The Trustee's Meeting here on Friday night - but wait for it to be held at your house on Tuesday the 4th - I - therefore - want you to be ready to come for Friday evg - if we can't make up a majority without - -

Lovingly yours

Susan B. Anthony

P. S. - Thus it stands - if Miss Howland comes for Friday night - we can - get the required number without you - I will you know the minute I learn - Then if she cannot come - & Mrs. Catt will stay & go with us to Wyoming - we can postpone our Fund meeting - & then you need not come -
