Dear Anna Dann

I sent you, yesterday - a money order for $9.60 - I now send you two orders - one for $ 5 - & another for $11---- which you may collect -- and put to the payment - 1st of you & Margaret - and second the balance to the house expenses - $18.90 - in all - it will be paying you for two weeks work - - but you put the account strait - - I am waiting to hear from sister Mary - she has not written a word since she left - The hotel last Thursday - a week ago tomorrow - she is bound to make a good visit - up there at Duluth - she may come at 1:30 this noon - we shall see? - Write me here - I now think I shall go down to Fort Scott - I am so near - that it seems best to look after sister Mary's property there - but will decide - when Mary comes - But write - if no more than to say you are well and no. 17 - is still standing!-!

Lovingly yours -

Susan B. Anthony
