[Letterhead: Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute]

Tuskegee, Alabama March 29, 1903.

Dear Anna D.M.

Here we are – at the Tuskegee institute – at Booker T. Washington's house & home – his wife and son David are at home – but not the husband & father – It is a beautiful new house – with all the modern Conveniences -- everything from cellar to garrett made by the students of the school – from the making of the brick to the carving of the mantels (?) – our party is Dr. Sherman Ricker, Mrs. Webber sister Mary & myself -- we arrived about 8:30 – last night in the rain -- The week had been very pleasant & cool – Mrs. Catt spoke Thursday night, and Miss Shaw spoke Friday night – after the Con was over – they had packed houses. so the New Orleans people had nine evening in succession of good speaking –

Now it is nearly 12 noon – all the rest came (?)
