OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Rochester, N.Y., May 24, 1897

Darling Niece Maud (Koehler)

I wonder if your mother is still with you & how long she is going to remain - I am half believing that you are expecting some thing to happen - well if so - I do hope all will go well with you - and feel very glad that your mather is well enough to make the long, hard jounet to be with you -- Nature is the best sort of a helper - & next to that dame - the mother comes in - so you see-Aunt Susan is guessing - well-how tickled the Sietenart will be - when to his hand is added a second one for him to love & cherish - well if all this is for nothing - let it all go that may- and whichever may- Aunt Susans best love & sympathy always go with her niece Maud - how well I remember that 29th of May 1825- when that niece was ushered into life -- I have been reading over your mothers old letters written of you -& by & by I am going to send them to you to laugh over - all the pet names she had for you - Well-dear Sister Anna - if you are still there with Maud - taking lots of comfort with her - I can fairly see you chatting-chatting!! I am glad you can be together - the two Daniels can rejoice to gether - till the Junior takes to himself a help-mate & is off for the old world - well how we do go & come -& stay- Nuni is staying this summer & diggin & delving among old letters & papers - to get material to help Mrs Harper write the true life story of your sister-S.B.A.-

Cousing Lucien Squiers son Burt was here yesterday - he & his wife are just back from their two?year sojourn in Col & California he is much stouter & brown as a nut- looks a thousand times better & more manly-

Louny: Anna's & Maud's & his Louis Aunt
