Rev. Geo C. Lorimer
Tremont Temple
Boston, Mass.

Dear Dr. Lorimer

My attention has been called to the enclosed clipping accompanied by others from Boston papers, which show that its condemnation of Dr. Dixon is well deserved.

This is not enough. Some of his statements are so misleading and others so preposterously false, that in a spirit of fairness the refutation should be made on the same platforms and practically before the same audiences as that before which the gross misrepresentations were made. To use the platform of a religious denomination to revile women, without whose earnest endeavors and patient service the very church itself could not exist and to give them no opportunity for defence is certainly not worthy of a great organization like Tremont Temple. It is but fair that the other side should be heard not in a spirit of [?] but in a simple and truthful statement position of the women of today who differ from Dr. Dixon. You have always been accounted in sympathy with the larger and broader interpretation of woman's life and work. Will you not invite Rev. Anna H. Shaw or Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt to speak on your platform. Either of these is the equal of Dr. Dixon as a public speaker and both are more dignified and correct in their statements.

I write this letter in response to the request of women from all parts of the country.

Very sincerely yours,
Susan B. Anthony
