Rochester, N.Y. January 17, 1899

My Dear Mrs. O'Connor,

On reaching home after an absence in New York City for a two weeks – I learn that nothing has been done about completing the organization of the proposed Local Council – as chairman of the Constitution Committee I am inviting its members to meet here at our house – No. 17 Madison Street -- tomorrow -- Wednesday -- afternoon at 2:30 O'clock --

I have also taken the liberty to invite the members of the nominating committee to meet here at 3 o'clock. --

Hence I hope you will get as soon after 2 o'clock as possible so our Com may be ready to report to the Nominating Com – a form of Constitution & by laws.

If you cannot possibly at 2 P.M. tomorrow – & can come in the forenoon – please do so. If we are ever going to go ahead – now is the time

With kind regards to your good husband -- & admiration for yourself, I am – very sincerely yours,

Susan B. Anthony
