My Dear Fannie Garrison Hillard

Your lovely note telling of your home loved ones came duly - and I now enclose the Certificate of your Life-Membership of our National Association - on the principle of the old maxim "it is better late than never" - it is all right. I am delighted always to feel that the only daughter of the glorious Sam Lloyd Garrison & the beautiful equally glorious Helen Garrison gives the weight of her name - her influence and her money to help along the day of woman's enfranchisement. It is splendid of you to thus remember our cause. And your dear brothers William & Frank - how true & vigilant they always are - George & Wendell I know but very little - but always think of them in the dear old home in Dix Place when I first visited your father & mother. It was from there that your lovely Mother took me to Essex Street to call on Mrs. Phillips. It was the only time I ever saw Mrs. Phillips.

The next time I am in New York I mean to try and see you - not since I met you at the Savoy - five years ago Nov. 13 - at your reception given to Mrs. Stanton on her 80th birthday - have I had a glimpse of you.

With the olden love & Admiration - I am

Very Sincerely Yours

Susan B. Anthony
